

Individual Tax Returns

Uncomplicated Tax returns where all information is readily available and only one appointment is required will cost $100 per return

More complicated Returns or where a second appointment is needed will cost more however it is difficult to assess how much more as we don't know how much time will be required, especially if we haven't seen the data.

Our fees are based on the time taken to complete the work so presenting us with complete summarised information will assist us and as a consequence your fees will be as low as possible.

The most common cause of extra fees is a lack of data being available to us at the time of your appointment we therefore recommend that you complete the checklist of data required as this will assist you to understand what information we need. If in doubt call us before you come in
